This document presents the core objects needed for implementation of project, their relationships and the responsibilities

Objects:
- Customer,
- Company,
- Product,
- Order,
- Cart,
- Cart,
- Review
- Saved Products

Relationships:

Responsibilities:

Company
- functionality of manipulation information about the company
- provides functionality of adding/updating and removal product

Product
- functionality of manipulation information about the product
- verification of availability of product

SavedProducts
- storing of customer's preferences

Cart
- storing order information before actual order

Review
- associate the review and rating with the specific product

Order
- storing order information
- calculation of total amount of products
- provides methods for manipulating the data

Customer
- storing user information
- provides methods for validation of information