Basic scenarios

1. User registration
   Steps
      - open the registration page,
      - input required information based on user role,
      - click the "sign up" button.

   Success outcome: The information will be validated and stored in the database after which the user will be redirected to the login page.

2. User login
   Steps
      - open the login page
      - input email and password
      - click the "sign in" button

   Success outcome: In case of right credentials the user will be validated and redirected to home page:

3. Search product
   Steps
      - open the search page,
      - input a keyword in the search bar,
      - click the "search" button.

   Outcome: The list of relevant products are presented, in case of no result appropriate message is shown.

4. Add/Update product in store
   Steps
      - company navigates to its homepage,
      - clicks "add product"/"update" button,
      - insert the required information,
      - click the "confirm" button.

   Success Outcome: The product is added/updated and the company is redirected to its homepage

5. Delete product in store
   Steps
      - company navigates to its homepage,
      - clicks the "delete" button.

   Success Outcome: The product is removed from the store and the page is updated.

6. Viewing order information
    Steps
    - User navigates to orders page,
    - (customers can also navigate to order items page to see every item being ordered)
    Success Outcome: The order information is being presented to the user in format of a table

7. Read the notification by company
    Steps
    - company navigates to notification page,
    - company is being presented the list of notification,
    - clicks the "mark as read" button
    Success Outcome: The notification is being marked by the system and is not being shown in notification page anymore

8. Watching the products based on the category/added to cart/added to favorites
    Steps
    - customer navigates to the appropriate page,
    - (if the products are being viewed from the category page customer should click on the link of the chosen category).
    Success Outcome: The list of products is being presented to the customer, in case of lack of any data to present an appropriate message is being shown.

Advanced scenarios

1. Add product to cart/favorites
    Prerequisites: Customer is viewing a list of products that was presented due to the last scenario in basic scenarios.
    Steps
    - Customer clicks on the product being presented in the page,
    - detailed information about the product is being presented,
    - customer clicks on the "add to cart"/"add to favorites" button.
    Success Outcome: The product is added to the list and the user can navigate to that page and see the product there

2. Leave review to the product

   Prerequisites : Customer is viewing a product information (described in the previous scenario 2-nd step)

   Steps
   - customer clicks on the "leave review" button,
   - from for the review is being presented to the user,
   - customer picks a rating for the product and writes comment,
   - customer click the "confirm" button.

   Success Outcome: The review is being added to the product's review list and being presented in the product's detailed information page

3. Make an order

   Steps
   - customer navigates to the cart page,
   - clicks the "order now" button,
   - the confirmation page is being presented to the customer for checking the list of items,
   - customer enters the address that the order should be delivered,
   - clicks the confirm button

   Success Outcome: the order is being added to orders of the customer with active status